

TRANQUILITY IN CUBA

KEYLY TO BE BROUGHT ABOUT WITHOUT ARMED AMERICAN INTERVENTION.

ALL CLASSES DISAPPOINTED

CUBANS DO NOT BELIEVE THAT PERMANENT PEACE WILL BE OBTAINED.

Havana, Sept. 24.—All classes are now waiting for the conditions under which tranquility likely will be restored in Cuba, and keen disappointment is expressed on every side because of the likelihood of peace being brought about without armed American intervention. That the differences between the opposing factions could be reconciled was not generally believed to be possible until Sunday, when it was announced that the Liberals and the Insurgents had empowered a committee to represent them before the American mediators. It is evident that the business interests of the island have no confidence in the ability of the Cubans to rule themselves and now, when it appears too late, they are openly favoring forcible intervention and possibly annexation.

Secretary of War Taft is cognizant of this general opinion that peace cannot last unless it is enforced by an American army, but he considers that it is the duty of the United States to give the republic another chance and believes that it would be bad policy for the United States to keep a force in Cuba longer than was required to supervise the laying down of arms. He said Sunday that if the Liberals and Moderates harmonize their differences the United States must regard the compact as made in good faith.

That peace will come as the result of the mediation of the United States is now believed by Cubans, regardless of party affiliations, but whether it will be on terms that will insure permanent tranquility is a question.

First Meeting Arranged.

Secretary Taft and Assistant Secretary of State Bacon spent Sunday night, receiving few persons. Representatives of the Veterans and of the diplomatic corps made brief visits. Senator Alfredo Zayas later met the mediators at the American legation and arranged for their first meeting with the Insurgents and Liberals' committees.

All conferences hereafter will be held at the legation on account of its accessibility, since most of the visitors to Messrs. Taft and Bacon reside in Havana.

When the diplomatic representatives of the foreign powers visited Mr. Morgan's villa at Marianao Sunday, Mr. Taft significantly stated that he could give them no definite assurances of peace, for the reason that terms had not been put forward. This statement was in response to an expression from Gaytan de Ayala, the Spanish minister, that the world expected the United States to settle the turmoil on some generous but firm conditions as to maintain the integrity of the republic.

The members of the diplomatic corps were also received by Mr. Bacon, who sought their views on the situation. All asserted that their governments desired the conflict to be ended with all possible dispatch in order to save commercial relations and credit between the island and their countries from ruin.

Among the other callers at Marianao were Generals Menocal and Agrarionto, who congratulated Messrs. Taft and Bacon on their success in bringing the Moderate and Liberal leaders to a realization of the necessity of each making some concessions.

Sympathize With Rebels.

The veterans showed sympathy with many of the principles for which the insurgents took up arms. They suggested that the first basis of the negotiations should be for the revision of the Cuban constitution, alleging that it confers too much power and too little responsibility upon the members of the cabinet.

"Cubans are too hot blooded to be given unlimited powers," said General Menocal. He declared that the present trouble resulted from the dissatisfaction over the action of the present and the former secretaries of the interior.

The nearest insurgent camp, near La Luza, just west of Marianao, was visited Sunday by great crowds of Havana people. Encouraged by the reports that peace was imminent the people for the first time dared to gratify their curiosity and to show their sympathy with the revolutionary cause. Although it was raining, this did not dampen the ardor of those who wished to visit the insurgents.

There is considerable comment over the fact that a salute of nineteen guns was given Secretary Taft when he visited the warships. Previously he had been given the usual seventeen guns, to which the secretary of war is entitled. The two extra guns mean that he is recognized as an ambassador extraordinary on a special mission with plenary powers from President Roosevelt. It is now known that he has been authorized to exercise his own judgment in all matters pertaining to the negotiations and that the squadron with its entire force is under his immediate control.

Concerning the reported preparations Saturday night for the transportation of marines and bluejackets by rail to Camp Columbia, Secretary Taft said Sunday:

"The United States forces are under my orders. I have given no order for them to land and not a man shall land until I give such an order."

Funston in Florida.

Jacksonville, Fla., Sept. 24.—Brigadier General Frederick Funston arrived here Sunday afternoon and left within three minutes for Port Tampa, where he expects to board the steamer Olivette for Havana via Key West.

SIX FAMILIES POISONED.

Roach Powder Endangers Lives of a Score of Persons.

Pittsburg Sept. 24.—Six entire families of Allegheny, whose members number over a score, have been poisoned through the product of a bake-shop. The poisoning was caused by eating wares purchased last week, and while the afflicted have not recovered all but two are reported out of danger. The family of Dr. G. G. Graham, which consists of Mrs. Graham, three daughters and a dinner guest, Dr. E. V. Weller, and John W. Davis, Mrs. Davis, her brother, eighty-four years old, and four sons were in the greatest danger. After an investigation it was said the poison was roach powder that had dropped from a shelf in the bakery into a barrel of sugar.

The case will be taken up by the health authorities.

CHILD CONVICTED OF MURDER.

Eight-Year-Old Iowa Boy Found Guilty of Killing a Playmate.

Albia, Ia., Sept. 24.—Oscar Napier, aged eight years, Sunday was found guilty of the murder of a playmate. The Iowa juvenile law does not cover murder cases, and the boy will be sentenced the same as if he were of mature age. Napier in a fit of passion several months ago deliberately shot a boy with whom he was playing.

Alleged Murderer Caught.

Valley City, N. D., Sept. 24.—Saturday a man suspected of being "Blackie," alias S. M. Shorty, wanted for the murder of Officer Personius, was arrested at Bismarck. Sunday Sheriff Oppgaard went to Bismarck and identified the man as Blackie. He was brought to Valley City heavily manacled, and was safely landed in the county jail.

OFF CHINESE COAST

REPORTED THAT THE UNITED STATES GUNBOAT HELENA HAS BEEN LOST.

Manila, Sept. 24.—It is reported that the United States gunboat Helena has been lost off the Chinese coast. No particulars have been received.

The Helena is a gunboat in the light-draught class. Her tonnage is 1,837 and her speed is 15.5 knots. Her armament consists of eight 4-inch guns, four 6-pounders (rapidfire), four 1-pounders (rapidfire), two Colt guns and one 3-inch field gun. She was launched in 1896.

The Helena's complement consisted of ten officers and 173 men.

It is probable that if the gunboat has been lost she went down in the typhoon that did such great damage at Hongkong.

RACE WAR IN ATLANTA

UNKNOWN NUMBER OF NEGROES AND ONE WHITE MAN KILLED DURING RIOTING.

TROOPS CONTROL SITUATION

GEORGIA MILITIAMEN AND CITY POLICE DISPERSE MOB AND RESTORE ORDER.

Atlanta, Ga., Sept. 24.—With sixteen companies of infantry, one battery of light artillery and one squadron of cavalry under Colonel Clifford Anderson of the Georgia militia and the entire city police force still guarding the city, Atlanta is comparatively quiet. The negro trouble, while breaking out in several sections during Sunday night, is now almost entirely abated. By order of the mayor, saloons have been closed until further notice and many business places were closed early in the evening. In the early part of Sunday night there were cases where cars were shot at from ambush. About 10 o'clock a negro pursued by a crowd of about fifty persons ran into the Marion hotel, where he was shot. A negro was shot in the hip at McDaniel street at 9 o'clock, but the prompt arrival of the militia saved him. A street car conductor, white, was shot by an unknown negro at 10:15, but his injuries were not serious. At an early hour Monday morning the number of killed all told is placed at sixteen, but there is no way of finding out the definite number as the negroes' friends carried the dead away in many cases, fearing the dead would not receive proper burial. Six bodies are at the local colored undertaking establishment.

At the request of the authorities, the newspapers issued no extra editions Sunday.

CAUSE OF THE RACE WAR.

Repeated Assaults on White Women by Negroes.

Atlanta, Ga., Sept. 24.—A race war of alarming proportions began here Saturday night. Through the night it raged with varying vigor, and when morning dawned it found a number of negroes and one white man dead, a score of both races wounded and the downtown streets in possession of eight companies of the Fifth Georgia infantry, with a battery of light artillery in reserve. Throughout Sunday little of importance occurred. The police claimed, with the aid of the military, to have the situation under control.

This condition came as the result of numerous and repeated assaults or attempted assaults upon white women by negroes. The last of an even dozen of such crimes within the limits of Fulton county within the past nine weeks came Saturday when four attempts were reported. Flaring headlines in the special editions of afternoon papers wrought the populace to a high pitch of excitement. The usual Saturday night crowds were largely increased by men and boys who thronged the downtown streets. There was no leader and no overt act until late in the evening. About 10 o'clock a negro man shoved a white woman from the sidewalk on Whitehall street, in the center of town. Almost simultaneously a negro woman made an insulting remark to a white man on an adjoining street and he administered what he considered due punishment.

Began Work of Destruction.

From this start the excited crowd, which had become a mob, began its work of destruction. Five thousand men and boys thronged the downtown streets looking for negroes. News that a riot had started brought thousands more from their homes in the suburbs and resident districts, until fully 10,000 men were in the downtown section. They made attacks on the incoming street cars. Each car was searched for negroes. The trolleys were pulled from the wires and in the semi-darkness of the unlighted cars negroes were beaten, cut and stamped upon. If a negro ventured resistance or remonstrated it meant sure death. One car half filled with negroes approached from an outside run. The mob dashed for the car. Resistance was made by the negroes, who had not been apprised of the trouble. Three negroes lay dead on the floor of the car when it was permitted to move on, and two more were beaten into unconsciousness.

When the crowd seemed to be getting beyond control, at about 10 o'clock, Mayor Woodward mounted a car platform and urged the crowd to disperse, declaring that the assailants of the white women would be adequately and promptly punished by due process of law. Mayor Woodward was given a respectful hearing, but when he finished the work of destruction was resumed. He made another appeal a few moments later, but without result. Then he turned in a general fire alarm, calling the entire department to the scene.

State Troops Ordered Out.

To Chief Joyner the mayor gave the laconic order: "Clear the streets." The result was to stop the mob in its work in that immediate section and to drive it to other streets. The situation became so threatening at 11 o'clock that Governor Terrell was asked to order out the state troops. Although no request had come from the sheriff, Governor Terrell mobilized the eight local infantry companies at once. Previously a police riot call had been sounded, summoning all police reserves to headquarters. With the decision to call out the troops the fire bell sounded once more, this time the call for every member of the militia to report forthwith at his armory. It was nearly 2 o'clock Sunday morning before the first squad appeared on the streets, and at 5 o'clock six companies were under arms.

The attacks had the effect of clearing the streets of negroes. Hacks were abandoned at curbsides; drivers on baggage wagons vanished and their places were taken by white men. This fear of trouble affected several public conveniences. The postoffice officials had much difficulty in delivering special letters, and in some restaurants service has been restricted by the absence of the regular waiters. Throughout the day hundreds of negroes have been fleeing the city; by train and wagon and on foot they have hurried from the city, fearing the possibility of trouble in the immediate future.

Negro Women Most Warlike.

In the fighting Saturday night negro women were the most warlike, urging resistance to the mob and themselves fighting like Amazons. In the residence districts great anxiety was felt. The police force was centered down town, practically leaving the residence districts without protection.

The fear of trouble was accentuated by the newshoys, who cried on the night air through the residence sections the headlines of the late editions. It was a night of terror to hundreds.

The lawless character of the mob Saturday night was fully demonstrated. When negroes had vanished from the streets they broke windows and damaged property.

The crowd after pulling negro porters from Pullmans of a Western and Atlantic railroad train standing ready to start, proceeded to smash the windows in the day coaches and mail and baggage cars. Numerous broken windows in stores showed evidence of the mob's work. A close watch was maintained to guard against incendiarism, but fortunately fire was not added to the terrors of the night.

Up to Sunday evening more than fifty arrests had been made of members of the mob, charging incitement to riot. Five hundred dollars bond has been required in each case. No names of prominence are found in this list.

RETURN TO CHICAGO

BANKER STENSLAND DESIRES TO AVOID PUBLICITY ON TRIP FROM NEW YORK.

Fire Island, Sept. 24.—A steamer passed Fire Island at 10:30 p. m., bound in, but refused to answer signals. It is believed to be the Prinz Adelbert which has Banker Stensland aboard.

New York, Sept. 24.—Paul O. Stensland, the fugitive Chicago banker, who is returning from Tangier in the custody of special representatives of the federal government, was not landed in New York Sunday night. The steamer Prinz Adelbert, on which he is a passenger, had not reached quarantine station at sunset, when Health Officer Doty's duties of passing the steamers inward ended for the day.

Even if the Adelbert were to arrive in the night she would have to wait at the quarantine station and Stensland could not be removed from her until Dr. Doty had inspected her passengers.

The Chicago representatives of the Illinois state's attorney's office, Charles L. Binns and Joseph L. Kinder, with two New York and two Hoboken detective sergeants, kept vigil all night at the barge office at the Battery ready to board a fast tug the moment the steamship Prinz Adelbert with Banker Stensland on board was sighted.

Theodore Stensland, son of the fugitive, dissipated the fears of the Chicago officials during the night when Mr. Kinder called on him. The son said he would make no fight on extradition. He added that his only wish in the matter was to avoid all the publicity he could and agreed the best plan was to get his father aboard a train and on the way to Chicago.

This declaration followed a letter received from Paul O. Stensland mailed Sept. 7. The father wrote that his wish was to get back to Chicago with all speed. He advised his son not to do anything to delay the return and asked only that his son and daughter meet and greet him in New York. The daughter did not come to New York, as it was believed inadvisable for the sake of her health. As the young man put it, he came here to give his father courage.

The officers said no interviewers would be allowed to see the elder Stensland on their Chicago journey. Young Mr. Stensland wished every accommodation and comfort provided for his father on the journey West.

The Chicago officials said that they had been advised by cable that there was no truth to the story that Stensland had attempted suicide. He had ample opportunity, if he had considered such a thing but made no move in this direction, the officers declare.

MASSACRE OF JEWS

BLACK HUNDREDS PLANNED TO

MAKE AN ATTACK ON HE-BREWS AT ODESSA.

PREVENTED BY AUTHORITIES

AGITATORS REVIVED OLD STORY

OF RITUAL ASSASSINATION TO AROUSE PEOPLE.

Odessa, Sept. 24.—It now transpires that the Black Hundreds, acting in collusion with the anarchists, had elaborated plans for a violent attack on the Jews on the occasion of the Jewish new year and that the carrying out of these plans was only averted by the extraordinary alertness and energy shown by the authorities. General Gregorieff, prefect of Odessa, in the absence of Governor General Kaulbars, has telegraphed information concerning the plot to Premier Stolypin. Although the danger is believed to be past the preventive measures inaugurated by the officials have not been relaxed. The Jews continue to be apprehensive of trouble.

In view of this check to their plans the experienced organizers of anti-Jewish demonstrations have opened the columns of their newspapers to another campaign. They have revived the old story of ritual assassination, accusing the director of a private infirmary of the murder of a Christian child by the transfusion of its blood into the veins of a sick Jewess. An official investigation of this case disclosed the fact that the child, which was a Jew, had been accidentally poisoned. Despite this, however, the campaign is progressing. The beating of Jews in the streets of the city progresses.

WITHDRAWS FROM PARTY.

Dmitri Shipoff Retires From Leadership of Octoberists.

St. Petersburg, Sept. 24.—The cause of conservative liberalism as represented by the Octoberists and peaceful regenerationists has suffered a heavy blow in the loss of Dmitri Shipoff, the veteran Liberal and the central figure in Russian politics, who in a letter to the committee of Octoberists announces his withdrawal from the party, which he led in the last campaign. His retirement is due to disagreements with Alexander J. Guchkoff and others of his colleagues, whose views approving Premier Stolypin's measures of repression prevailed after a hard fight in the central committee.

M. Guchkoff, who has now succeeded to the leadership of the party, in an open letter to Prince Eugene Troubetsky, the Constitutional Democrat, reiterates his approval of drumhead courtmartial and other measures of firm repression, declaring that a liberal or even a radical government would be unable to cope with revolutionary terrorism without them and that it is the truest mercy to strike and spare not.

"There are things more terrible and more savage than a drumhead court-martial," the letter says, "namely, lynch law, armed revolt and civil war."

The letter condemns the Constitutional Democrats for seeking to persuade the people that an understanding between the government and the people is impossible and for preventing by extravagant demands any other issue than actual revolution.

"Even if the right of revolution is recognized I must shrink from the fratricidal strife which would follow. In such a population as Russia's it would exceed in savagery and barbarity all previous civil wars. If those who led Russia into a needless foreign war are guilty, how much more culpable would be those plunging the empire into a ghastly internal war when the situation presents another issue? Excesses and revolution would bury our young liberty and all of our culture."

Abdul Hamid's Malady Is Said to Be Incurable.

Paris, Sept. 24.—The Temps says it learns from an absolutely unquestionable source that the latest consultations of medical advisers of the sultan of Turkey established the fact that Abdul Hamid was suffering from cancer of the kidney. This malady, the paper says, does not permit of an operation and is usually fatal within a year.

CURIOUS DESIGNS.

Odd Results May Be Produced by Dropping Oil on Water.

A curious experiment may be made, the result of which will produce a strange natural design, and the attempt may be carried on with almost endless variety in the result. The only things needed are a deep dish of water and some oil. Any kind of oil will do, but better results are obtained with a variety.

Fill a deep dish with pure water and let it stand until the water is perfectly still, then let fall into it a drop of pure sperm oil. The drop will spread out, forming a film circular in shape, but very ragged at the edges. If you watch the film you will soon perceive that the center begins to break up, forming ovals and circles, and the combinations of these form endless designs which keep on forming and breaking up from one to another for fully half an hour, making a veritable kaleidoscope.

You will see some designs that you may wish to preserve, and if that be so take a piece of glazed paper and place it gently over the surface of the water when the film is in the desired design. The oil will stick to the paper, and when you remove it from the water, as gently as you placed it there, run an inked roller over it or place the design on an inked plate. The ink will cover the paper except where the oil has touched it, and when your process is finished your design of oil will stand out white against a black background.

This same experiment made with castor oil will give a similar result, except that the designs will be smaller, and every kind of oil will give a different design. Indeed, no two drops of the same oil will produce the same design, so that you may preserve an endless variety in your collection.

Simple Cure For Neuralgia.

Here is a simple method of curing facial neuralgia: If the neuralgia is on the right side of the face the left hand should be placed in a basin of water as hot as can be borne, or if neuralgia is in the left side of the face then the right hand should be placed in the hot water. It is asserted that in this way relief may be obtained in less than five minutes. The explanation is that the two nerves which have the greatest number of tactile nerve endings are the fifth and the median nerve. As the fibers of these two nerves cross any impulse conveyed to the left hand will affect the right side of the face or if applied to the right hand will affect the left side of the face. This is on account of the crossing of the cords. —Indian Review.

OFF FOR WADENA

Large Party of Members of Court of Honor go to Wadena to Attend Convention

Over thirty members of the Brainerd Court of Honor went to Wadena today to attend a convention of that order. The party was composed almost entirely of ladies among them being Mmes. Ozard, Bush, P. M. Johnson, Barron Heller, Schultz, Morris, Thievot, Opsahl, Wilmar, Bennett, Moberg, Thomas Moody, Carlson, Davis, Towers, Lagerquist, Rose, McGinn, McLearn, P. D. Johnson and Sargent, Misses Mons Johnson, Ella Wood, Mamie Erickson, Mary LeMay and Hannah Hagberg. Messrs. Opsahl and Carlson went along to see that the ladies did not get lost.

SENSIBLE REVIVAL.

Doctrine That is Being Preached by Best People of Brainerd.

There are all kinds of revivals, religious, moral, and temperance, but today the chief interest seems to be in a revival for good health, and it seems to be the Mi-o-na doctrine that has the most adherents in Brainerd. Wipe out indigestion and stomach troubles by using Mi-o-na tablets and most of the misery and ill health would be blotted out of existence.

Indigestion and stomach weakness cause headache, back ache, nervousness, debility, sleeplessness, pain in the side and limbs, poor appetite and a general unhealthy state. Take one little Mi-o-na tablet before each meal for a few days and you will soon find that life is filled with joy and health, that eating is a pleasure and food does not cause distress, and that your digestive organs have become so strengthened that you can almost be credited with the digestion of an ostrich.

A large box of Mi-o-na stomach tablets is sold for 50c by H. P. Dunn & Co., and it is so successful and reliable in curing indigestion and all stomach troubles, with the exception of cancer of the stomach, that they sell it under an absolute guarantee that the money will be refunded unless it does all that is claimed for it.

THERE WERE TWO SILVER WEDDINGS

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Falkenreck and Mr. and Mrs. P. D. O'Brien Celebrated

BOTH WERE SATURDAY EVENING

Friends of Both Couples Remembered Them with Handsome Tokens of Silver.

On Saturday evening Mr. and Mrs. P. D. O'Brien received their friends at their home on 411 South Broadway in honor of their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary. They were assisted by Mrs. Don O'Brien and Mrs. Alice Murray, while the Misses Mabel, Maude and Julia O'Brien presided over the dining room.

The rooms were beautifully decorated with sweet peas and asters.

While the guests were being served with dainty refreshments they were also favored with charming instrumental and vocal selections rendered by the Misses Kit and Vivian Reilly, Emily Quinn and Mae O'Brien.

Mr. and Mrs. O'Brien were the recipients of many beautiful and costly gifts in silver and cut glass.

The out of town guests were Miss McLeod, of Aitkin, and Mr. John Doran, of Minneapolis. The unavoidable absence of Harry O'Brien was the one drawback to the evening's pleasure.

"May Mr. and Mrs. O'Brien prosper and live to celebrate their golden wedding," is the wish of friends.

The twenty-fifth anniversary of their wedded life was celebrated last Saturday evening by Mr. and Mrs. William Falkenreck at their pleasant home in N. E. Brainerd, whose parlors and grounds were handsomely decorated in honor of the event. A large number of invited guests, including several from Little Falls and St. Paul, were present and spent a most enjoyable evening. The Germania Maennerchor, of which body Mr. Falkenreck is president, gave a song recital. Many handsome and valuable presents were given the happy couple, the singing society presenting them with a silver tea set. An elaborate supper was served at midnight.

Mr. and Mrs. Falkenreck are old and respected residents of Brainerd enjoying the confidence and esteem of all, and the congratulations and best wishes of their many friends are freely extended them upon completing such a happy event.

Cured Hay Fever and Summer Cold

A. J. Nusbaum, Batesville, Indiana, writes: "Last year I suffered for three months with a summer cold so distressing that it interfered with my business. I had many of the symptoms of hay fever, and a doctor's prescription did not reach my case, and I took several medicines which seemed to only aggravate my case. Fortunately I insisted upon having Foley's Honey and Tar in the yellow package, and it quickly cured me. My wife has since used Foley's Honey and Tar with the same success. H. P. Dunn & Co. eoddw

Six lanterns were hung out one night he states and four were stolen while the next night four were put out and three were taken. He states that he tried to wire them onto the guard around the walk but that the wire was cut and the lanterns taken. He says that when the city will furnish adequate police protection he will hang out lanterns.

BEMIDJI HAS

BOY HERO

Charles Vaaler, Aged Twelve Years Risks His Life to Save Boy from Drowning

SAVED LIFE OF 4-YEAR-OLD

Dove for Little Fellow When He Was Going Down for the Third Time

Chas. Vaaler is in line for a Carnegie hero medal according to the following from Saturday's Bemidji Pioneer:

"Charles Vaaler, the 12-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Vaaler, should be enrolled on the list of young heroes and awarded a Carnegie medal, as prompt and energetic action on the part of Charles undoubtedly saved the life of the 4-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Opsahl, Thursday.

"Mr. and Mrs. Opsahl live at Lavinia, on the north shore of Lake Bemidji. Their boy walked out on the small dock on the lake while his parents were not looking Thursday afternoon and made a mis-step and fell into the lake.

"Charles Vaaler was rowing a boat towards the dock at the time and seeing the boy fall in the water hastened to the spot and without any hesitancy dove headforemost into the lake, grabbed the boy and swam to the shore with him, catching him as he was about to sink under the waves for the third time.

"The boy was quickly revived and taken to his home, and has suffered no ill effects from his involuntary bath.

"Young Vaaler is a modest sort of chap, and is deserving of every possible praise for his prompt and heroic act in saving the life of the Opsahl boy."

Scene in "Devil's Auction"

AMUSEMENTS

The Devil's Auction

Manager Chas. H. Yale says the "Devil's Auction" is the best paying piece of theatrical property in America, and gives the following reasons to substantiate the claim:

First, it has been on the road continuously for twenty-four seasons.

Second, it has always pleased its many thousands of patrons throughout the country.

Third, it has always been kept up to the times with novelties and innovations, making it each season a new performance, simply retaining the old name as a trade mark.

Fourth, it has never presented anything to offend and cater to the ladies and children.

Fifth, the theatre going public are always sure of enjoying a pleasant evening's entertainment and seeing what the management advertises.

The one reason why everybody should see it this year is that the 25th edition of the "Devil's Auction" is new in its entirety.

The introduction of a number of European specialties particularly pleasing to the ladies and children is another strong feature of this year's production, and to this point have been engaged Les Quatre Theresitas, a quartette of marvelous gymnasts, and Dogoto and Glock, musical grotesques.

The scenery, mechanical, transformation and trick changes have always been one of the "Devil's Auction's" strongest features, a fact fully appreciated by its management and not lost sight of in this twenty-fifth edition.

Quite a number of new scenes and effects have been prepared, notably "The Lake of Lost Souls" and "The Realm of Mephisto," an entire new full stage scene representing the Valley of Andoche, two new comedy and trick scenes, "The Gates of the Castle Morpheus" and "The Magic Picture Gallery" which in conjunction with the magnificent "Gardens of the Manikins," "The Grand Tournament Scene," "the Sphinx Scene" with its many other elaborate changes too numerous to particularize, promise to make the twenty-fifth edition of "The Everlasting Devil's Auction" the most notable production of its phenomenal career. Opera house Tuesday, Sept. 25th.

The World.

On Thursday, Sept. 27th, the stirring nautical melo-drama "The World" will be presented at the opera house for the first time here.

The play has enjoyed success on both sides of the Atlantic and is said to be most interesting in its plot and most amusing in its comedy. The scene is laid on the shipping docks in Liverpool and on board an Atlantic liner. The scenery is said to be elaborate and appropriate. Popular prices will prevail for this attraction.

The DISPATCH will be delivered at your door for 40 cents per month.

ARE YOU WRETCHED IN BAD WEATHER?

Keeping the Kidneys Well Has Kept Many Brainerd People Well

Many Brainerd people find that bad weather brings on a dull pain in the back, or rheumatic aching, neuralgia, nervousness, irritability and weakness. If, when you get wet or take cold, it "settles on the kidneys," and there is a shivery, chilly sensation in the back, it shows kidney weakness, which is often the beginning of disease. Doan's Kidney Pills should be used persistently until the chilly feeling is gone, and the flow of urine is natural. Doan's Kidney Pills have saved Brainerd people much suffering.

Mrs. J. A. Johnson, living at 611 10th St. S., Brainerd, Minn., says: "My husband's work brings a constant severe strain on the muscles of the back and it recently caused an attack of kidney trouble that became worse whenever he took cold. He suffered from backache and was so lame and sore that it was hard to straighten up or even to move about. There was also an irregular action of the kidneys. Seeing Doan's Kidney Pills advertised he got a box at H. P. Dunn & Co.'s drug store, and the treatment proved most beneficial, corrected the kidney trouble and removed the pain and lameness. I also used Doan's Kidney Pills myself, with the gratifying results. They certainly act quickly and surely."

For sale by all druggists. Price 50 cents. Foster Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the U. S.

FROM THE STATE CAPITAL

The primary elections have determined that, in the main, the Republicans wish to retain their present
members of congress from Minnesota.
In fact, there is really only one defeat out of the nine congressmen. In the Sixth district, owing to local conditions, Mr. Buckman failed to be renominated and is succeeded by Mr.
Lindbergh. In the Fifth, Mr. Fletcher declined to run again and Frank Nye was chosen. While perhaps the candidates for congress have imperfec-tions, the voters realize that no man is perfect, and were willing to accept the men they believed would best serve the interests of their district.
As all of the congressional districts in Minnesota are safely Republican the result of the election in November will be the choosing of a solid Republican delegation. This delegation will stand by the policies of President Roosevelt and the principles which have made the Republican party strong.

In the light of the present situation,
it seems odd to recall that, in a spirit of generosity and fairness, the Republicans some years ago thought it a good plan to allow the Democrats to have a member of congress. They accordingly carved out the Third district and placed therein what were then among the strongest Democratic counties in the state. It would hardly be fair to style this a stroke of political generosity, as it removed some Democratic counties from supposedly Republican districts, leaving them certainly Republican, while otherwise in sharp political scrammages they might have been doubtful, so the Democratic counties were bunched and the party of slow ideas was allowed to work out its own salvation. Every politician at the time supposed that the state had a hopelessly permanent Democratic congressional district. But the world moves, even if the Democratic party does not, and the people arose in their intelligence and after a few years transformed that supposedly benighted Democratic district into a Republican district and it took its place in the progressive column of Republicanism. For several terms the district was represented by a Democrat in congress, but this year the Democrats did not even name a candidate, so hopeless has their cause become.

The other day I picked up a copy of Governor Johnson's inaugural message and was interested to read the section devoted to a distance tariff and to observe the reasons why he objected to
it. It was because it might take away from the large cities the advantage
they now enjoy over the smaller towns.
Of such a tariff the governor said "it might be of temporary benefit to the rural districts and at the same time be the means of gradually tearing down our internal terminal markets,
the result being eventually to our disadvantage." By "internal terminal markets" the governor of course means St. Paul and Minneapolis. Apparently the governor is more solicitous for the welfare of the Twin Cities than to do anything that will contribute to the growth of the small towns or the advantage of the farmers in the "rural districts."

The movement for the revision and regulation of railroad rates, which was inaugurated by a Republican legislature and is now being carried on by the railroad and warehouse commission, has borne more fruit. Three of the great railroads have now offered to make a voluntary reduction on the rates on coal in Minnesota. They did this because they saw it was inevitable that a reduction would be ordered if they did not. It is notable that the men whose names are most conspicuous in the movement for lower freight rates are Senator Eberhart, the Republican candidate for lieutenant governor, and Charles F.
Staples, one of the sitting members of the railroad commission and candidate for reelection. Mr. Eberhart, when in the senate, offered a joint resolution clothing the railroad and warehouse commission with authority to regulate and revise railroad rates.
When it became a law the railroad commission had for one of its three members Hon. Charles F. Staples, who is now a candidate for reelection.
Ever since the commission began the work under the joint resolution Mr.
Staples has been resolute and aggressive, demanding that the interests of the people should be protected. He made it so clear to the railroads that something more would be done that they offered a voluntary reduction of rates on grain and have now followed with a reduction of rates on coal. In addition, the commission has ordered a reduction on merchandise rates. It is estimated that the reduction of rates on grain and coal will save the people $2,000,000 and the reduction on merchandise rates $750,000, so that the aggregate reduction which has been secured up to this time amounts to $2,750,000. It should be borne in mind that this has been entirely secured by Republican activity and that two of the most active men in obtaining this great relief for the public are now candidates for office before the people. If men are to be judged by their works and a party is to be measured by what it accomplishes for the people, these men and the Republican party would seem to have some tangible claim on the voters in November.

NEW YORK MURDER MYSTERY.

Disembodied Body of an Unknown Man Found.

New York, Sept. 24.—A burlap bag stamped with the name "Z. K. Mano,"
a strip of a woman's skirt and an oil cloth table cloth bearing a rude
sketch of the head of Columbus, are the only immediate clues to the perpetrators of a revolting murder committed in the early hours of Sunday morning and accidentally revealed
by a gruesome discovery in West Thirty-sixth street. The disembodied body of a man, apparently an Italian, wrapped in the burlap bag was found in a hole twenty-four feet deep, forming a part of an excavation where an addition to a brewery is to stand. The discovery was made by the day watchman for the building contractors and later a systematic search by the police resulted in finding the parts of a man's legs from the knees down and the arms and hands. These were wrapped together in a newspaper of the date of Sept. 10, and bound about the bundle was a strip of a woman's skirt. All was neatly and securely tied with a string, suggesting deliberate preparation. This latter bundle was found under a covering of hay in a freight car. The car was unloaded of a shipment of horses Saturday. The head and the thighs of the man are missing. It is the theory of the police that the murder was committed near where the body was found and that three packages of the dismembered parts were made with the purpose that they be disposed of at some distance from the scene of the crime.

Coroner's Physician Weston, who examined the body, said that the work of dismemberment had been deliberately and skillfully done.

The burlap bag bore the name of
"Z. K. Mano," a Syrian nut importer, who died six weeks ago and whose widow auctioned off his stock in trade.
